Dear friends in Christ,

I am happy to announce the opening of registrations for our NCADDHM Annual Conference that will take place in Houston, Texas from October 10-13, 2023. We are very grateful to God and our mother Mary for the hospitality of his Eminence Daniel Cardinal Dinardo and his Auxiliary Bishop, the Most Reverend Italo Dell'Oro, C.R.S., for welcoming NCADDHM to the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston for our annual gathering. A special thanks to the Archdiocesan Office of Hispanic Ministry under the prominent leadership of its director Mr. Lazaro Contreras, M.A., for his generosity and guidance in facilitating this important dialogue for our conference.

The theme for this year's conference is "Iglesia en Encuentro – Opportunities and Challenges from the National Pastoral Plan for Hispanic/Latino Ministry". We hope the days will be Spirit filled and will provide opportunities to learn more about the plan and how it will work in our own ministries. There will be some pre-work before the conference so please be prepared to do some reading and studying before you hit Houston.

Peace,

Ignacio Rodriguez
Presidente
