THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC ASSOCIATION OF DIOCESAN DIRECTORS FOR HISPANIC MINISTRY

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Dear Members and Partners,

Dear members, collaborators and friends, my heartfelt gracias for your ongoing Pastoral de Conjunto (Communion in Mission), especially during these challenging times of COVID-19. Even as we enter this new year with hope and trust in God's grace and mercy, we know that our ministries of healing, reconciliation and unity continue to guide much of our priorities, pastoral conversion and synodality. As we walk together in faith and service, we also rejoice in the Spirit for the gift of community and social friendship. Many blessings on your ministries and let us continue to pray for one another and those we serve in the Lord.

Paz,

Javier+

Don't miss this transformative annual gathering for leaders in Catholic social ministry and advocacy! This year, we will pray, learn, and advocate together on the disparities revealed by COVID-19 and re-imagine new models of justice and solidarity.

Dynamic and thought-provoking presentations, workshops, and grassroots breakouts will invite us to work together as a Church to rebuild the common good in our communities. Then, we'll raise our voices in solidarity by advocating to our members of Congress.

This year's virtual CSMG will feature a panel highlighting the work of three “sowers of change” who have been working to address the disparities revealed by COVID-19 long before the pandemic began, and who have responded with creativity and resilience:

Ana Chavarin, Organizer, Pima County Interfaith

Anta Gueye-James, Country Representative for Senegal, The Gambia, and Guinea-Bissau, Catholic Relief Services (CRS) - Senegal

Rachel Lustig, President and CEO, Catholic Social Services of Columbus

Moderated by Fr. Juan Molina, President, Mexican American Catholic College

U.S. Bishops' President Condemns Violent Protests and Prays for Safety as Chaos Threatens U.S. Capitol

WASHINGTON — Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), issued the following statement in response to today's violence in the United States Capitol:

"I join people of good will in condemning the violence today at the United States Capitol. This is not who we are as Americans. I am praying for members of Congress and Capitol staff and for the police and all those working to restore order and public safety.

"The peaceful transition of power is one of the hallmarks of this great nation. In this troubling moment, we must recommit ourselves to the values and principles of our democracy and come together as one nation under God. I entrust all of us to the heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary. May she guide us in the ways of peace, and obtain for us wisdom and the grace of a true patriotism and love of country."

Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), issued the following statement in response to today's violence in the United States Capitol.

Collection for the Church in Latin America Inspires All to "Share Your Faith"

The annual national Collection for the Church in Latin America (CLA) will be the weekend of January 23-24.

The 2021 campaign highlights the faith of Latin America and the many opportunities we have to share faith with them. We also recognize the tremendous benefit of having our Latin American brothers and sisters in the Church and the revitalization their fervor brings to the faith. In addition to offering our help and support to the Catholics of Latin America, we have much to learn from them.
